

I am writing about the LPFM broadcasters ruling and the effect on a national radio station KLOVE. KLOVE serves the community of Topeka and others to give a source of Christian music and news. A loss of this service would be devastating to my family and the community. It is nice to hear a radio station all day long that my family can hear and I am not worried about the programming. Please reconsider your pending ruling about LPFM.